Please take Advantage of this opportunity! I'm talking about the chance to improve my ability to communicate with you about our work, and also to be of encouragement in your spiritual walk with Jesus!

We're in the process of creating a website that will show you much about our work in great detail. As you might imagine, that does take a good bit of time.

But as a beginning, we've tested sending out emails to people who want to receive them, and I believe this part of our system is up and running smoothly.

We have two emails we are sending:

- Our monthly Newsletter, which will be identical to the paper newsletter we send out now. You can read it online, share it, download and print it!
- A weekly devotional email called "Open to Jesus Moments."

This weekly email is written by me and is a less-than-100 word devotional designed to help us reflect on the blessings and challenges which energize our lives in Christ.

- To sign up for these, go online to wwwSimplyChristian.net/email. Once there, please enter your name, email address and the name of the church you attend.

The text of the devotional emails is also published on the following

Facebook page. (Please consider becoming a member of this Facebook page if you use Facebook):

I believe you'll be much encouraged. I also believe you'll enjoy in greater touch with the India work that you've been supporting and praying for!

Please Pray for M. Alisha

M. Alisha is one of our outstanding leaders and workers. He and his family have been with us for a very long time and the fruit of his work is almost uncountable.

Abraham was promised that his descendants would be as innumerable as the sand of the sea. Alisha's spiritual descendants are at least as innumerable as the sand on a small beach!

I received a note yesterday (Nov 3) that he had fallen. He was taken to the hospital and diagnosed with high diabetes. He wasn't able to breathe properly, but received a negative result from a Covid-19 test. He does have a severe respiratory infection and is now on a ventilator.

They do things differently in India, so Alisha has been sent home with injections and is hooked up to the ventilator.

Please pray for this great worker in the Lord's kingdom.

A Timely Reminder (I hope)

Ours are troubled times. As an illustration, I expect I'll send this newsletter before we know who has won the Presidential election. Trouble indeed.

But I feel strongly compelled to remind myself and you—that while our political situation is of deep concern, it isn't of the utmost concern to us who are spiritual. "This too shall pass."

God places whom He will on the thrones of men, and often chooses the lowest of men to enjoy high leadership.

If I think about it, it's always been this way for most Christians in most ages in most parts of the world. Yet we are not without hope, as are other men.

So my reminder: rejoice in the Lord always. And work your mind to find reason to rejoice! (Philippians 2.17)

As always, I'd love to come and deliver a report to you and your congregation. And when you start holding gospel meetings again, please consider inviting me to help!
